THE GATHERING RITE

Gathering Music Es ist ein Ros' entsprungen by Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

The Opening Acclamation

The people's responses are in bold.

Our God, Emmanuel, now draws near;

O come, let us adore.

Come, O come Emmanuel, you are the way, the truth, and the life; you are the true vine and the bread of life. Come, living Savior, come to your world which waits for you. Praise to you, the one, holy, and living God, now and forever. Amen.

Opening Hymn

2 O come, thou Wis - dom from on high, who or - derest 3 O come, O come, thou Lord of might, who to thy 2 all things might - i - ly; to us the path of know - ledge
3 tribes on Si - nai's height in an - cient times didst give the 2 show, and teach us in her ways to go. Re - jice! Re - jice!
3 law, in cloud, and ma - jes - ty, and awe.
Em - man - u - el shall come to thee, O Is - ra - el!

words: Latin, ca. 9th cent.; ver. Hymnal 1940, alt.

music: Veni, veni, Emmanuel, plainsong, Mode 1, Processionale, 15th cent.; adapt. Thomas Helmore (1811-1890)

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

With tender comfort and transforming power you come into our midst, O God of mercy and might. Make ready a way in the wilderness, clear a straight path in our hearts, and form us into a repentant people, that the advent of your Son may find us watchful and eager for the glory he reveals. We ask this through him whose coming is certain, whose day draws near: your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Lesson Isaiah 40:1-11

Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

A voice cries out: "In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain.

Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken."

A voice says, "Cry out!" And I said, "What shall I cry?" All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass.

The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand for ever. Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!"

See, the Lord God comes with might, and his arm rules for him; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

The Response sung by the choir

How lovely are the messengers that preach us the gospel of peace, to all the nations is gone forth the sound of their words, throughout all the lands their glad tidings.

words: Romans 5:15-16
music: from St. Paul, Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

The Gospel Mark 1:1-8

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
Glory to you, O Christ.

The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

As it is written in the prophet Isaiah,

“See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way;

the voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

‘Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight,’”

John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, “The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

The Sermon The Rev. Louise Kalemkerian, Associate Priest

A period of silent reflection follows the sermon.

The Creed

During the season of Advent we will be using a scripture-based credal statement from the Episcopal Peace Fellowship of South Africa.

It is not true that creation and the human family are doomed to destruction and loss—

This is true: “I have come that they may have life, and have it more abundantly.” —John 1:20

It is not true that we are victims of evil that seeks to rule the world—

This is true: “Unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given, on whom authority will rest; who shall be called the Prince of peace.” —Isaiah 9:6

It is not true that we must wait for prophets to speak before we can be peacemakers—

This is true: I will pour out my spirit on all flesh and your sons and daughters shall prophesy, your young ones shall see visions and your elders shall have dreams. —Joel 2:28

It is not true that our hopes for liberating justice, human dignity, and peace are not meant for this earth and for this history—

This is true: “The hour comes, and it is now, that the true worshipers shall worship God in spirit and in truth. —John 4:23

Merciful God, lead us from death to life, from falsehood to truth, from despair to hope, and from hate to love. Lead us to your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please offer your own petitions silently or aloud during the silences, or via a Facebook comment, which we will read aloud at the end of the prayers. The intercessor says

God of many names, God beyond all names; the beginning and the end of every story, the meaning of every life; infinite Mystery both hidden and revealed:

O come, Emmanuel: Hear us when we pray to you.

Blessed are You, who joins all things together in the communion of Christ’s Body. Renew and energize your holy Church, in this parish and throughout the world, that we may be a resurrection people, manifesting your steadfast love in our common life of praise and service.

O come, Emmanuel: Hear us when we pray to you.

O perfect Wisdom, direct and rule the hearts of the leaders and shapers of society, raise up prophets of justice and peace, and empower your people for the holy vocation of repairing the world.

O come, Emmanuel: Hear us when we pray to you.

O Desire of every heart, the answer to every longing: You are the strong force that draws us into the mystery of love divine. Forgive us those things which distract and delay us, and lead us ever deeper into the Way, the Truth and the Life.

O come, Emmanuel: Hear us when we pray to you.

O Dayspring from on high, You unlock every door and make a way where there is no way. Set free all who are afflicted or distressed in body, mind or spirit. The People add their own prayers. Resurrect their hope, grant them peace and refreshment, and restore their joy.

O come, Emmanuel: Hear us when we pray to you.

Dear people of God, for what else, and for whom else, shall we pray?

The online prayers of the people are offered.

O come, Emmanuel: Hear us when we pray to you.

The Celebrant concludes

O God who has come, God who does come, God who is yet to come: Make us an Advent people, ready and alert to welcome and receive You in the stranger's face, the loving act, the moment of grace, the presence of healing, the birth of possibility, the gift of wonder. Let every heart prepare You room. We pray in the name of Jesus, who comes among us now. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Please share the peace wherever you are: with a comment posted on Facebook, a bow to those nearby, or some other distanced gesture of peace.

Thank you for your generous support!

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

The Offertory

The Altar-Table is prepared with gifts of bread and wine for Communion. During this time, give thanks for all the ways God blesses you, and consider ways you can extend that blessing to others. Learn more ways to give on the previous page.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

We praise you and we bless you, gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, fire, and water, and every living thing.

You made us creators in your image and taught us to walk in your love. But we rebelled against you, wandered far away, and used your gifts for evil.

And yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in your light and the fullness of your love.

So this day we join with all the earth and heavens in a chorus of praise that rings through eternity, as we proclaim:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - - - - ly, God of pow-er and might: Hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Glo - ry be to you, O God most high. Bles - sed is he that comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san na in the high - est.

All glory be to you, holy and living God. You looked with favor on Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus, the holy child of God. Living among us Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world into the heart of God, but we were heedless of his call to walk in love.

When the time came to complete the offering of his life, Jesus was eating supper with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, saying: "Take and eat; this is my Body, offered to heal you and the whole world. Whenever you eat it, do this to remember me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again he gave thanks to you, offered it to his friends and said, "Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, a promise of eternal love poured out for you and for all creation. Whenever you drink it, do this to remember me.

Now gathered at your table, remembering that we are one with you and all creation, we offer to you from your own hand these gifts of bread and wine, and our own bodies as a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts, that they, and we, may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Fill us with your breath, O God, opening our eyes and renewing us in your love. Send your Spirit over the whole earth, making everything a new creation.

And in the fullness of time bring us, with all your children from every people and tribe and faith and language and nation to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the power of the Holy Spirit, we give glory to you, O God, now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant
As our Sa - vior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Celebrant and People
Our Fa - ther in hea - ven, hal - lowed be your Name, your king - dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea - ven.
Give us to - day our dai - ly bread.
For - give us our sins as we for - give those who sin a - gainst us.
Save us from the time of tri - al, and de - liv - er us from e - vil.
For the king - dom, the power, and the glo - ry are yours, now and for ev - er. A - men.

The Communion

The disciples knew the Lord Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

—Luke 24:35

Hymn at the Communion

1 Com - fort, com - fort ye my peo - ple, speak ye peace, thus 2 Hark, the voice of one that cri - eth in the des - ert
3 Make ye straight what long was crook - ed, make the rough - er saith our God; com - fort those who sit in dark - ness far and near, call - ing us to new re - pent - ance pla - ces plain; let your hearts be true and hum - ble, mourn - ing 'neath their sor - rows' load. Speak ye to Je - since the king - dom now is here. Oh, that warn - ing as be - fits his ho - ly reign. For the glo - ry ru - sa - lem of the peace that waits for them;

cry o - bey! Now pre - pare for God a way; of the Lord now o'er earth is shed a - broad;

tell her that her sins I cov - er, let the val - leys rise to meet him and all flesh shall see the to - ken and her war - fare now is o - ver.

and the hills bow down to greet him.
that the word is nev - er bro - ken.

words: Johann G. Olearius (1611–1684); tr. Catherine Winkworth (1827–1878), alt.
music: Psalm 42, Claude Goudimel (1514–1572)

After a period of silent reflection the people pray the following

God of love and grace, of justice and peace, we give you thanks that in the Sacrament of the altar you assure us of your presence within us and within the body of Christ, the faithful throughout all generations;
grant that we who are nourished anew by these holy mysteries may be moved by your indwelling Spirit ever more fully to embody your holy and life-giving presence, reshaping in your likeness the world around us, until we are gathered at last into the fullness of your glorious and eternal presence;
through Christ our Risen Lord. Amen.

—Bennet Brockman, alt.

THE SENDING RITE

The Blessing and Dismissal

God is coming among us:
in our past forgiving us,
in our present loving us,
and in our future, meeting us with everlasting grace.

And may the blessing of the deep mystery we name God –
Source of hope,
Word of life,
and ever-present Spirit of truth be with you this day and remain with you always. Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve Christ in all places and all people.
Thanks be to God.

Postlude Nun komm der heiden Heiland by Johann Pachelbel (1653-1706)
